Legislators Meet, Study Local Issues

It was back to "business as usual" last night at Springfield as the Illinois General Assembly began a combined regular and special session.

The legislative meeting is expected to either end this week or halt and resume Monday, Dec. 11. Many of the lawmakers plan to attend the National Conference of Legislative Leaders Dec. 5-8 in Miami, Fla.

Topic "A" at Springfield this week is expected to be the plan by outgoing Governor Richard B. Ogilvie for a property tax freeze at current levels. He is addressing a joint session today.

Passage may not be possible due to widespread opposition by municipal, school, township and county officials who fear that a freeze could paralyze their operations.

Governor-elect Daniel Walker initially indicated general support for the freeze plan. But he has increasingly stressed concern for special aid to home owners and renters if federal revenue-sharing funds are used as reimbursements for property taxes.

Other General Assembly topics may include:

1. Establishment of a cultural-convention center in Madison-St. Clair counties.
2. Division of the East Side Levee and Sanitary District into two districts.
3. Salary increases or bigger expense allocations for legislators.
4. Raises for county officials and circuit judges.
5. Enactment of a state lottery.
6. Creation of state election and education boards.

GO members of the House of Representatives yesterday chose W. Robert Blair, Park Forest Republican, for reelection as Speaker of the House.

The group considering reorganization for the Jan. 10 annual session (far different from the group transacting current legislative business).

In the Senate, where Republicans will have a 30-29 edge next year, 23 of the present 38 members are retiring. The new Senate will have 39 members, being linked to the 59 three-member House districts as a result of the new Illinois Constitution.

In the House, where the GOP will have an 89-88 advantage, 60 will not return to their House seats. Of these 60, eight will move to the Senate and 52 are retiring.

Because of the narrow margin of Republican legislative control, there is speculation that Blair may lose out for the House Speaker post to a Democrat from Southern Illinois, Rep. Clyde Choate of Anna.

Rep. Eugene Schickman of Arlington Heights and Rep. John Hirschfield of Champaign left Sunday's GOP caucus, saying they could not vote for Blair, but would not vote for a Democrat. If they maintain this stand, Choate could win 88-37.

Blair received 51 votes yesterday to 38 for Rep. Henry H. Hyde of Park Ridge, majority leader. Choate is minority leader.

Referring to rumors that Gov. Ogilvie may be appointed to a federal post, Blair said he asked him not to leave the party's activities in Illinois.

Before today's talk by

Ogilvie, the Illinois Municipal League planned to urge a delay in a tax freeze through appointment of a legislative study commission reporting back next spring.

The precise rule Governor-elect Walker will take has not been outlined but he hopes to "put my stamp" on the late-fall session.

Walker in a weekend interview indicated he has no plans to participate actively in national Democratic politics at this time.

"I want it very clear," he said, "I've got a real job here. It's going to require all my time and energies."

Walker said he hopes to involve factory workers, housewives and "ordinary people" in state government.

He will conduct "accountability sessions" periodically in large and small cities, utilizing a press conference format but with citizens asking the questions.

He said that with the aid of Senators Stevenson and Percy and Illinois Congressmen he hopes to "delineate the needs of Illinois to Washington."

"We'll get what we need," Walker predicted, adding that the "past record—fourth from the top in federal tax payments and fourth from the bottom in per capita receipt of federal aid—is not good."

It is proposed to develop a $25 million facility linking Horseshoe Lake State Park and Cahokia Mounds State Park.

Major competition for the state's share of federal bi-centennial funds is expected to come from the Chicago and Springfield areas, it was noted at a meeting in Granite City last week.

However, the local application will surpass other regions in both historic value and tourism potential, it was contended.

A bi-centennial park is to be created in each of the 50 states to commemorate the 200th anniversary of the United States in 1976.

The local plan includes "touring national and international

Park Could Attract Many Tourists

If a site between two local parks is chosen as the Illinois Bicentennial Park, planners are confident it would become a permanent tourist attraction, rivaling and complementing the Gateway Arch on the St. Louis riverfront.

It is proposed to develop a $25 million facility linking Horseshoe Lake State Park and Cahokia Mounds State Park.

Major competition for the state's share of federal bi-centennial funds is expected to come from the Chicago and Springfield areas, it was noted at a meeting in Granite City last week.

However, the local application will surpass other regions in both historic value and tourism potential, it was contended.

A bi-centennial park is to be created in each of the 50 states to commemorate the 200th anniversary of the United States in 1976.

The local plan includes "touring national and international shows, exhibits and performing groups.

"These would be housed in a cultural center, set in the protected and landscaped environment between the two parks, taking advantage of their access roads and parking facilities."

"As the Horseshoe Lake and Cahokia Mounds balance each other, so the cultural center would add another interlocking element to the whole."

"While the other two parks would function primarily during the day, the cultural center would be more active at night. It would offer multiple choice to families visiting the complex."

"The success of the Mississippi River Festival proves that this metropolitan area will support worthwhile events. Such support would be needed to take over the center after the centennial year."

"Other post-centennial uses would include conferences, meetings, exhibits and a visitors' center.

"An historical museum would be an appropriate part of this use."

"It would tell of the various groups which have settled in the area—picking up the story where Cahokia Mounds leaves off—from the early French, the Angles, Germans, Irish, Italians, Eastern Europeans and blacks, giving the background of each and their roles in developing this area."

"The Cahokia Mound-Horseshoe Lake site for the American Revolution Bicentennial Park offers an unusually rich opportunity to make a contribution to the social, cultural and economic life of the community and to serve the nation as well."

"It would add to existing facilities at relatively low cost and it would be available to the people where they live, rather than at a distance," the planning document points out.

Day's Drive by Fund Agencies

The United Fund has asked its agencies to close their doors—for one day—to dramatize the Quad-Cities what the effect might be if the UF campaign fails, and also enable agency workers to spend the day seeking campaign pledges.

The workers, aided by other drive volunteers, will canvass business and professional people of this area Tuesday, Dec. 5, in a one-day resocialization of places where original pledges were deemed insufficient or were non-existent.

Carl E. Mathias, service area manager of the Illinois Power Co. and chairman of the UF Commercial Division, said: "We're seeking at least $100 from every business place in this area—and if we get it, the drive will succeed."

"That $100 may sound like a lot to some businessmen, but it needn't be a lump-sum gift.

"They can pledge $100 to be paid, in installments, if they like, any time during 1973. That's about $8 a month."

United Fund Campaign Chairman Paul H. Kelly has predicted a need for an additional $60,000 to bring the drive near its goal. "Obviously," he said today, "the 800 places of business in this community can produce that amount if they pledge $100 apiece."

Mathias also pointed out a reason why business and professional people are a possible source of contributions.

"They are one area of our economy doing better this year, especially retailers, food stores, automotive suppliers and taverns."

"Somebody has to pick up the slack caused by the reduced operation and shutdown of some of our industrial plants."

The Dec. 5 one-day effort will be carried out not only by staff people from the various United Fund agencies, but by members of their boards of directors—plus other citizens.

One or two agencies may remain open, however, because of difficulties that might arise if they closed.

Kelly has said that if the campaign falls short of its goal, it could mean the end of the Tri-States United Fund.

The campaign goal is $143,661.

The latest report on pledges received at the United Fund office shows a total of $307,700—or 74.4% of the goal.

Mrs. Timar, 74, Struck by Auto, Dies in Hospital

Mrs. Pearl Timar, 74, of 2035 Madison Ave., died at 10:15 p.m. Wednesday in the Jewish Hospital, St. Louis, after she was struck by an auto in front of her home.

The auto was driven by John Gorka, 1932 S. Madison. Witnesses told police that Mrs. Timar, while pushing a shopping cart, had walked in front of one auto before walking in front of the Gorka auto at 7:05 p.m. Wednesday.

The motorist said he was unable to stop in time. An inquest is pending.

A native of Hungary, Mrs. Timar lived in Wood River before moving to Granite City several years ago. She was a member of St. Bernard's Catholic Church, Wood River.

Her husband, Louis Timar, died in 1931.

She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Margaret Ebbler of Alton, Mrs. Irma Menoni of Edwardsville and Mrs. Virginia Trumbler of Tucson, Ariz.; two sons, George Timar of Long Beach, Calif., and Louis Timar of Wood River; and five grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 9:30 a.m. Saturday at St. Bernard's Church, with burial in St. Joseph's Cemetery, Alton.

State Has Emergency Plan for Dobby Area

The Illinois State Division of Waterways will proceed with an emergency program to relieve the Dobby Slough area of Nameki Township of flooding until a $4.5 million project proposed by Governor Richard Ogilvie can be developed, it was reported today.

Mrs. Helen Hawkins, leader of a group of residents in the Dobby Slough area, said she was informed during the weekend by John Guillou, chief engineer of the waterways division, of a program to drain the slough in periods of heavy rains.

She said Guillou told her he plans to visit the area in about two weeks to discuss the program more fully.

Mrs. Hawkins said a group of residents will attend the regular Nameki Town Board meeting tonight to present petitions asking that the township aid financially in an emergency drainage program.

Four Persons Charged With Armed Robbery

Four persons were arrested on armed robbery charges in complaints filed by a married couple, Alan and Darla Hampton, 2899 Iowa St., who were forced from their home for a ride around town, according to a police report at 1:48 a.m. today.

Those charged were being held in custody today in the Granite City Jail.

Darla Hampton said she answered a knock on the front door early today and that Prince entered the house, followed by Ray and Dickens. The report said Ray entered the bedroom, took a .25 caliber automatic gun from Prince, and police also charged her with unlawful restraint, no firearm identification card and unlawful use of a weapon.

The four were arrested at Highway 182 and Lake Drive by Madison County Sheriff's deputies after the Hampsons reported the incident.

Walker, Scott to Help Choose Party Leaders

By KEN WATSON
Copley News Service

Springfield—A big shake-up coming in Illinois politics.

Both party organizations are heading for the most far-reaching changes a mid-alignments since the 1950s.

At the Statehouse it is already taken for granted that both party chairmen, Democrat James A. Ronan of Chicago and Republican Victor Smith of Robinson, will be replaced.

Ronan has held office since the 1952 Presidential campaign of the then governor, Adlai E. Stevenson II. Smith has been GOP chairman since 1959.

Both have had their ups and downs: their good years, and their bad. Both generally have been credited with doing an overall good job.

But now they are going because of circumstances beyond their control, much as it often happens in politics.

Ronan has been in poor health for some months. Although he is vigorous enough to practice law, the strain of politics dictates a lighter schedule.

The timing is good, too, since Ronan has long been recognized as the "man" of Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley.

The Daley machine is not quite ready to be buried, but its power and influence are considered in decline.

New Democratic Governor Daniel Walker has made it clear he wants a major say in party affairs, and this will undoubtedly include the selection of a new state chairman.

In this regard, Walker differs drastically from the last Democratic governor, Otto Kerner, who during his two terms

DeMolays Help Boost Salvation Army Drive

Contributions to the Salvation Army "Tree of Lights" campaign to provide Christmas baskets, food, clothing and toys for needy Quad-City families today stands at $625. The 1972 goal is set at $12,000.

Acceptance of applications for the holiday food baskets started this morning at the Salvation Army headquarters, 1900 Grand Ave., where prospective recipients were waiting in line outside the office prior to opening time, a spokesman at the local Citadel noted.

Applications may be submitted from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. today through Friday at the Granite City headquarters, Captain Ronald Kenley, Salvation Army commander, reminded local residents.

Donations received to date have turned on 25 lights on the symbolic Christmas tree, located in Memorial Park across from St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Among those contributing to the 1972 fund-raising effort are members of the James Stuart Chapter, Order of DeMolays, whose efforts at the Salvation Army kettles sites on Friday resulted in donations from passersby amounting to $88, illuminating three bulbs on the tree.

Members of Emerson Parent-Teacher Association will ring the "bells" Tuesday outside the W. T. Grant store in Nameki Village Shopping Center, Capt. Kenley said.

Other donors to the current drive whose gift illuminated a $25 light or more on the tree include the International Hodcarriers and Building Laborers Union, Local 387; and the Rev. Henry J. Mack.

Mock Disaster Drill Set in GC Tomorrow

A mock disaster drill, simulating a bomb blast at Granite City High School, will be conducted at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow as test emergency service in Granite City.

Twenty-four mock casualties, speech and art students at the school, will be transported by ambulances from the school to St. Elizabeth Hospital where they will undergo simulated treatment in the emergency rooms, trauma room, burn facility or other specialized treatment area.

The drill is to be concluded by 11 a.m. It will be the first time the facilities of the new Doctor's Wing of the hospital have been tested in an emergency situation.

The drill was arranged and will be directed by Dr. Obert M. Lay, chief of staff, and Bernard T. Pinney, director of safety and security for St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Illinois History Week Spotlights State Library and Microfilming of Newspapers

(Special from the Illinois State Historical Society, Old State Capitol, Springfield)

The state of Illinois will be 154 years old on Dec. 3 and Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie has proclaimed Nov. 28-Dec. 3 as Illinois History Week.

But to the Illinois State Historical Society and the Illinois State Historical Society together they form the only statewide organization devoted to the collection and dissemination of Illinois history.

Since this is Illinois History Week, State Historian William K. Alderfer has taken the occasion to tell something of the history, organization and work of the Library and Society.

The state historian is appointed by the governor as head of the Historical Library and traditionally he is also elected as executive director of the State Historical Society.

Thus, he serves as the connecting link between the two. But they are so closely associated he frequently has difficulty in knowing which hat he is wearing.

The Historical Library is administered by a board of three trustees appointed by the governor. The affairs of the Historical Society are supervised by a board of 15 directors elected by the membership.

Donald F. Lewis of Bethalto in Madison County, a retired history professor at McKendree College, Lebanon, was elected president at the Society's annual meeting in October.

The Historical Library—a research institution, as defined by the state constitution—is located beneath the Old State Capitol in downtown Springfield and is one of the few underground libraries in the country. The headquarters of the Historical Society are in the Library.

The Historical Library was established in 1889 by a legislative act and began with a donation of 442 books from the State Library.

That number has grown, Alderfer says, to 126,000 bound volumes, including 7,300 books about Abraham Lincoln and another 10,000 on the Civil War.

In addition to its books, the Library has a large collection of manuscripts, maps, photographs and Lincolniana.

Among the three million manuscripts are the papers of twelve Illinois governors, the most extensive collection of Black Hawk War papers in existence and 1,321 original Lincoln documents.

The Lincoln collection is the largest outside of Washington, D.C., and includes Illinois' copy of the Gettysburg Address, one of only five copies in Lincoln's handwriting in existence.

Beginning with the 1899-61 biennium, the legislature has made appropriations totaling more than $250,000 to the Library for the purpose of microfilming Illinois newspapers.

The result is the largest collection of such papers to be found anywhere. The 40,000 reels of microfilm are kept in vaults from all parts of the state.

The files of 57 cities run a hundred years or longer. The collection of earlier points out, is invaluable to historians.

While the collections—the books, manuscripts, and newspapers—form the hub of the Library's activities, the work of telling the Illinois story takes many forms, and much of this is accomplished through the cooperation of the State Historical Society.

The Society was organized in 1889 by the Library trustees for the purpose of developing a comprehensive statewide history program and that is what it has continued to do.

After three years, the trustees realized, however, that the Society could not accomplish its purposes without legislative support similar to that provided in other states.

At that time the dues were $1 a year and the membership was about 150; the dues are now $7.50 and the membership approximately 4,000.

In 1903, the legislature made the Society a department of the Library and authorized the trustees to incur certain expenses of the Society, making it a quasi-public organization.

The first result was the launching of a publications program which has since produced more than a hundred hard-cover volumes of Illinois history plus numerous pamphlets.

The quarterly magazine—"Journal of the Illinois State Historical Society"—has been published regularly since 1908. "Illinois History—A Magazine for Young People" was begun in 1947.

The "Journal" is received by all Society members and "Illinois History" is supplied to schools for classroom use eight times a year.

Another way the Historical Library tells the Illinois story is by maintaining historic sites or museums.

The Library administers through contracts the Old State Capitol in Springfield (reconstructed and refurbished as it was in the 1840-60 period when Lincoln and Stephen A. Douglas were almost daily visitors). "Clover Lawn"—the David Davis Mansion in Bloomington (an example of gracious living in the nineteenth-century manner), and the Carl Sandburg Birthplace in Galesburg (a late nineteenth-century working-man's cottage).

The third way the Illinois story is told is by the use of a historymobile which takes exhibitors from the Historical Library's collections to schools, courthouses, shopping centers and county fairs of the state.

In 1960, a gift of $25,000 to the Society from the Robert R. McCormick Charitable Trust made the first of these vehicles possible and in 1969 it was replaced by a second gift ($35,515) from the same organization.

Besides taking history to the people, the Society takes the people to history by holding two membership meetings each year in different cities for tours of the historic sites in the immediate area. These meetings are open to the public.

Another program for taking people to history is a series of four meetings for high school students held each spring in four different areas of the state.

The students tour neighboring historic sites and exhibit their history-related art, handicrafts, and projects. Their work is judged and the best are entered in a statewide contest each May in Springfield.

To further the study and write City High School sophomore class take time out from rehearsals. They are, left to right, first row, Rhonda Gionko and Woody Halbrook; second row, Winnie Freedman, Don Datzauer, Annette Tarpoff, Janet Moss and Leon Scroggins; third row, Mike Siebert, Shelly Boyd and Vic Coleman. Keeping pace with the women's liberation trend, the Granite City High School sophomore class will present the play "Time Out for Ginger" at 8 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday at the Central Junior High School auditorium.

The play, a Broadway-hit light comedy by Ron Alexander, involves a 14-year-old girl, Ginger Carol, who seeks her individual rights by trying out for the boys' football team. With her actions, she jeopardizes her father's bank job, and according to her sisters, ruins their social life.

The director is Ronald Penning, assisted by Barb Wilkins, a GCHS senior.

Members of the cast, who have been rehearsing since earlier in the year, include Don Datzauer, Annette Tarpoff, Shelly Boyd, Janet Moss, Leon Scroggins, Ed Hoffman, and Rhonda Gionko.

Approximately 275 historical markers have been erected throughout the state since this program began in 1934.

The State Historical Society also cooperates with local societies and museums through sponsorship of the Congress of Illinois Historical Societies.

About 75 local groups are members of this organization which holds a workshop meeting each year besides receiving individual counseling and materials from the Library staff.

Members of the Library staff work as advisors to the architects in the reconstruction of the Old State Capitol in Springfield and the current rehabilitation of the Governor's Mansion.

The purchased the furnishings for the Old Capitol with a $300,000 fund raised by the Abraham Lincoln Association. These furnishings were later presented to the Historical Library-Society.

Membership in the State Historical Society is open to anyone, with annual dues beginning at $7.50. Information may be obtained by writing the executive director, Illinois State Historical Society, Old State Capitol, Springfield 62706.

County Faces Revenue Squeeze, Thrift Urged

By MARION BARTOSIAK
Press-Record Staff Writer

Faced with a shortage of revenue, members of the Madison County Board were urged to curtail the number of committee meetings held, for which per diem and mileage is paid, during the November meeting, Wednesday at the County Courthouse.

The board that day transferred $4,744 from contingencies to meet mileage and per diem costs.

In the annual budget message, J. J. Gramlich, chairman of the board's Finance Committee, noted that budget cuts were made by most departments.

He pointed to financial problems the county will be forced to deal with in the next year beginning Dec. 1. Included are: Personal property taxes being contested, which could cause a $300,000 loss of income.

Tax collection fees, now contested in court, which could cause a loss of more than a half million dollars.

Loss of $150,000 to $200,000 to the state in the field of inheritance taxes.

Loss of $250,000 to $300,000 in the mobile home use tax, which was declared unconstitutional.

The homestead exemption of $1,500 per family for those over 65 years of age.

In other resolutions and motions, the board:

Increase Rates

Increased the rates for patients in the county nursing home from $400 to $424 per month and at the shelter care home from $250 to $268 per month, effective Dec. 1.

Provided $10,500 as the county share in the federal employment program to continue to December 1972.

Planned to interview three persons who passed state qualifying examination for the post of county supervisor of assessments.

The candidates and their exam scores are Lester Klenke, 77.49; Darby S. Campbell, 74.50; and James Barton, 73.26.

Two other qualified candidates indicated they are not interested in the position. They are Marilyn Richey with a score of 93.07 and Margaret Hornberger with a score of 79.94.

Provided $70,000 to the Nameoki Township Road District as half the cost of a bridge over Canton Creek.

Land Use Plan

Heard a report by Chairman Nelson Hagnauer that the new East-West Gateway regional plan is potentially harmful to Madison County, including the American Bottoms, adding that "we are hoping they will include our county land use plan."

Hagnauer said the county plan may be presented for County Board adoption next month.

Provided $12,499 as incentive pay for members of the Sheriff's Department.

Designated all banks in the county as depositories for county funds.

And approved a motion commending James Chapman, retiring record of deeds, "for loyal, faithful and honest service to the county."

Illinois State Fair Dates, Events Set Tentatively

Copley News Service
Springfield — Tentative dates of Aug. 10 through 19 have been set for the 1973 Illinois State Fair, with some judging to start a day earlier because of increasing entries.

A number of changes in dates and locations for traditional events have also been made, with others still under discussion.

Though the fair is set, at this time, to open on Friday, Aug. 10, beef cattle judging will start on Thursday, Aug. 9. The traditional Grand Champion auction will also be moved up a day as well, to Monday, Aug. 13, instead of Tuesday.

Still under consideration is a proposal to hold just one steer show, instead of the live show and carcass show format now followed, with the possibility of mandatory slaughter, for the top two or three places, except for the light weight classes, and substantially increased premiums for the carcass portion of the show.

There will be a new outdoor show area next year at the south end of Happy Hollow, where the natural terrain offers an "ancient Greek outdoor theatre" possibility. There will be an activity ring 120 by 360 feet and shaded bleacher seating for 3,500 spectators in the new arena.

Free Entertainment
Like other Fair events, entertainment will be free. Already scheduled there are the Hunter and Jumper Horse show from Aug. 16 through Aug. 19 and the preliminary competition for Veteran's Day drum and bugle corps on the first Sunday of the Fair.

Other activities which may go into the arena include pony pulls, heavy horse performance classes and pony hitch events. The front two-thirds of Happy Hollow will remain Children's World but some events will be different next year.

There will be a new carnival operation setting up the midway in the area southeast of the mile track, where the midway was moved last year from Happy Hollow.

Goddard's Million Dollar Carnival, which won the contract in bidding among six carnivals, is promising a bigger show at lower rates, with 67 rides and shows, plus the usual games and concessions, to be set up.

Top price for any ride will be 30 cents except for the 23-cent rollercoaster type ride where the fee probably will be 75 cents.

Championship Events

The tractor pull, which got its start at the Illinois fair a few years ago and has drawn steadily increasing crowds to the mile-track for pulling events, will move into the "big time" next year, with championship events scheduled for the afternoons of Aug. 16 and 17 in front of the grandstand.

Finally, Veteran's Day will move back into its old position on the first Sunday of the fair, which next year will be Aug. 13.

Fair manager Bob Park said the administration would have preferred to keep the event on the first Sunday, as was done last year, but "our last week-end simply conflicts with too many national conventions of veterans' groups."

"Our heritage of excellent marching band competition is too strong to diminish by losing some of our finer groups to the national conventions."

School Districts to Identify Their Needs And Goals as Step Toward 'Accountability'

A new system for evaluating Illinois schools requiring local districts to develop program plans with strong community input will be put into effect in 1973, State School Superintendent Michael J. Bakalis said today. Illinois school board members and administrators last week in Chicago.

Speaking at the annual joint meeting of the Illinois Association of School Boards and the Illinois Association of School Administrators, Bakalis said it is time that the state's recognition and supervision standards reflect the growing cry for "accountability" by emphasizing educational performance as the basis for determining eligibility for state aid.

Currently, the recognition status of a school is primarily based on quantitative considerations—such as the number of pupils per square foot in a classroom, the size of a library or the adequacy of lighting, Bakalis said.

"I think we all would agree that the condition of school facilities is important," he said. "But in relation to what young people should actually be experiencing in the classroom, we have clearly attached too much significance to these other more easily measurable considerations."

"The question of whether children are receiving a quality education will only be answered when we begin to pay more attention to educational performance than to educational conditions."

Bakalis said a broadly based advisory committee has been working for 18 months in developing the new standards.

While he agrees with its report in principle, he will seek further input and reaction before adopting the recommendations.

There are three points, however, to which Bakalis said his administration is steadfastly committed, he said.

They are: that there will be improved recognition standards; that submission of local program plans will be required; and that the community must be involved in the planning process.

Bakalis termed the local district program plans as the most significant new requirement in the recognition and supervision process.

He said that in their written plans, school districts will be asked to assess their needs, to identify objectives for improvement, to specify activities for accomplishing those objectives, to devise evaluation procedures and to involve the community in the planning.

The annual program plans, Bakalis said, will allow local districts to closely examine their educational situation. They will be able to determine where they are educationally, where they want to go, and how well they have met their goals, he said.

And, he added, the plans will aid in the budgetary process by showing districts where they most need to concentrate financial resources.

School districts will then be evaluated by the state in terms of progress in meeting "unique philosophical and operational goals as stated in these program plans," Bakalis said.

"Let me stress," he added, "that no educational program is being imposed on school districts by the state. I want to see autonomy and flexibility at the local level enhanced."

"My office has neither the capacity nor the desire to assess needs, to identify objectives and to design programs for 1100 school districts. Planning at the district level can only be done by people at the district level."

Bakalis said community involvement in program planning is necessary because citizens pay for education and have a right to help chart the destiny of the educational system.

He added that, without broad public support, no significant and desired change in education is possible.

Bakalis said the proposed evaluation standards are a step in forging a new working partnership between state and local school authorities.

Unless local school control is enhanced in cooperation with the state, he said, may witness an erosion of local authority brought on by a shower of federal controls.

"It is the position of my administration," Bakalis said, "to strengthen local school districts and provide those who govern them with more and better tools to do the job."

To aid districts in meeting the new standards, Bakalis' office is preparing technical assistance guidelines for developing local program plans. He said they will be ready by the first of the year.

The Illinois Association of School Boards and the Illinois Association of School Administrators will join his office in conducting ten regional workshops—beginning in mid-January—on these guidelines, Bakalis announced.

Schmitt Readies Squad for Wrestling Opener Saturday

The feeling at Granite City High School as the wrestling season draws closer is that if any coach in the state can take nine holes in a team lineup, fill them with relatively inexperienced wrestlers and still come up with a championship team, Coach Bill "Red" Schmitt can.

Schmitt has proved year after year that he can whip beginners into potential state champions between the first wrestling practice and the opening match. This year's practices started in mid-October and the first meet of the year will be Saturday.

The major problem facing the squad now is that only three of the 12-man tournament of last year have returned for the 1972-73 lineup. Four other experienced wrestlers have returned including junior John Niebur (112) who finished sixth in the state last year. His season record was 7-1.

Three Returning
Returning from the 1971-72 tournament team are senior Jack Schooley (140) who was a state qualifier and district and sectional champion. His record was 22-1.

Also back will be senior Kerry Johnson (119) who had a record of 24-6 last year and was a district champion. Johnson will wrestle either at 119 or at 126 this year.

The third tournament team holdover is junior Phil Lapinski (98) who finished with 22-11-3 last year. He will compete at 105 this year.

Others Experienced
Experienced varsity wrestlers returning besides Niebur are senior Dennis Regan (132), who was 17-5-0 last year; junior Pat MacMillan (105), 6-0-0, who will compete at 98 this year; and junior John Hankins (145), 0-3-0. About 50 hopefuls are competing for the available spots on the Warrior lineup in wrestle-offs now going on.

The team will have an impressive record and a long shining history of wrestling at Granite City High School to uphold.

Among the strings Coach Schmitt would not care to break this year are 164 consecutive victories against Southern Illinois teams, 14 consecutive conference championships, 15 consecutive district crowns and victories in 18 of the last 19 sectional tournaments.

In addition to upholding those records, last year's squad was undefeated in dual meets, 18-0, was the champion at the Jacksonville and Hazelwood tournaments and was the runner-up at the Southwest Invitational and the Granite City Holiday Wrestling Tournament.

The one loss through graduation which will be most keenly felt by Schmitt is Doug Wilson (138), who finished second in the state at that weight class and later was named to the Illinois All-Stars team.

Wilson won 43 consecutive matches in the year and lost only his first match of the year and the last match which was for the state crown.

Also missed will be Tom Kalert (155) who had 36-5-0, and Craig Stephens (heavyweight), who was 34-10-0 for the 1971-72 season.

Competition for 1972-73 officially starts this week with a triangular match against Jacksonville and Normal Community at Jacksonville, starting at 1 p.m. Saturday.

LITTLE MAN WITH A BIG KICK. Steve Cacciatore, left, SIUE's clever freshman forward, boots the soccer ball with such force that it blurs at right. In the rear is Cougar defensive star Dennis Driscoll.

SIUE, Akron Teams Win, Soccer Battle Upcoming

The last time the two teams played they battled to a 2-2 double overtime deadlock at Akron, Ohio. That was two weeks ago in season-ending games for both schools.

Now, this coming Saturday afternoon, again in the tire manufacturing capitol of the world, Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville's Cougars will meet the University of Akron Zips for the Midwest regional National Collegiate Athletic Association college division soccer championship.

Winner of the Akron-SIUE game will advance to the four-team national NCAA college division semifinals on Thursday, Dec. 7, and the championship contest, Saturday, Dec. 9. It will be the second national NCAA soccer championship tournament hosted by the Cougars in the last four seasons. They hosted the 1970 NCAA university division finals.

In advancing to the finals at Akron this coming Saturday, Coach Bob Gueller's SIUE kickers had to turn back a determined eleven from Eastern Illinois University, 3-0, and with the University of Missouri, St. Louis, before defeating the Rivermen, 4-2.

Semi-Final Games
The two semi-final games were played Saturday afternoon at Cougar Field. Akron's record now is 9-2-2, while the Cougars are still undefeated with a 8-0-3 mark.

Playing the first game, UMSL had an overwhelming advantage offensively except in goals. When Akron's Tony Leonard scored the Zips and the game's first goal it was Akron's second shot on goal compared to 10 for the Rivermen. In all, UMSL registered 40 shots-on-goal to only 15 for Akron. UMSL garnered 11 corner kicks to just two for the Zips. But, in fouls, the hard-charging Zips had a clear 21-12 advantage.

Rich Parkinsin, Farrokh Nosrati and Bosville Salmon scored Akron's three other goals. Frank Flesch tied it up briefly for UMSL, 1-1, at 29:00 into the first half on an assist from Cliff Tappel. And the Rivermen's great star, Steve Buckley, cut the Zips lead to 3-2 at 36:37 on another pass from Tappel. But that was the last gasp for the Rivermen who truly miss a standout striker like their injured Tim Smith.

Rivermen at 9-2-0
With the loss, Coach Don Dallas' Rivermen finished as the school's best season with a 9-2-0 record. Their other defeat came in a 2-0 setback at the hands of SIUE.

In SIUE's 3-0 victory over the Eastern Illinois U. Panthers, the Cougars struck with deadly quickness as John Stremiau, their freshman striker, took a pass from veteran Chris Canenza, and slammed the ball into the nets with just 1:21 minutes elapsed.

Fighting back, Eastern held off the Cougars the rest of the half as the two teams left the field at the intermission with SIUE in front, 1-0. Again, this time with just six minutes gone, Canenza headed in a beautiful feed from the right to make it 2-0.

Canenza, scoring on a direct penalty kick at 42:39, ended his two-game scoring drought. He led the Cougars in scoring for the regular season with nine goals and one assist.

Cougar Defense
Rick Benben and the Cougar defense of Denny Driscoll, Steve Elliott, Tim Putnam, co-captains Vince Passi and Kevin Howe, Tom Galati, Mike Boland and Norm Seim were terrific. It was Benben's sixth shutout of the season.

Up front are the offense, Stremiau, Canenza and Cacciatore received standout help and play from Tom Twellman, Bob Kessen, Greg Modde and Joe Gallagher. In early going, Kessen had two spine-tingling misses and Twellman was very close on three attempts. Their efforts forced Eastern's goalie, Charles Weisberg, to make 14 "saves". Benden, meanwhile, was called on to make seven rather routine stops.

In posting their victory over Eastern, the Cougars salvaged some pride out of losing to the Panthers, on the margin of one goal, at the Illinois Universities Soccer Tournament held early in the season at Northern Illinois U., at DeKalb. In that meet, both schools won one and tied one, but Eastern racked up one more goal than the Cougars and won the "title".

Trojans, Red Devils Set for Cage Openers

Venice and Madison High School basketball teams will open their seasons Tuesday night with the Venice Red Devils traveling to Columbia, and the Madison Trojans hosting Triad. Both games start at 8:15 p.m.

The Devils will be on the road for six games before they come home on Jan. 9 to play Lincoln.

Although the Trojans continue to play a tough independent schedule to the overall outlook seems bright and they should improve on their 18-15 record of last year, according to the coaching staff.

The Trojans have three returning lettermen, Anthony Matthews, Roger Glasper and Jerry Belford.

Coach Larry Graham is beginning his fourth season as the Trojan basketball mentor and has compiled a 39-36 overall record.

Venice Coach Bill Ohlendorf will begin his 12th season. Ohlendorf, who started his coaching career in Venice, has compiled a 197-88 overall record. The Devils were 16-9 last season.

The team in practice appears to have some height and good speed this year and should shoot well, Ohlendorf said. The tallest man on the squad is Ron Henry, 6-5, 175 returning letterman who played varsity ball as a sophomore.

The weakness appears to be inexperience in varsity action, according to Ohlendorf.

The Granite City Warriors open their cage season Saturday night and will host Madison Friday.

New Promoter, New Look for Speedway

When the green flag is dropped at Tri-City Speedway this spring it will be a complete new face for the local race plant.

Speedway Promotions Inc., headed by Ed Bloom of St. Louis, will take over the promotion and management of the half-mile dirt track. Bloom is a former promoter of the St. Louis area, Speedway and for the past two years has been secretary and general manager of Auto-Race Promotions Inc. of St. Louis.

Plans for the 1973 season include weekly Friday night shows sanctioned by Central Auto Racing Association of St. Louis and featuring late model stock cars on the half-mile track and hobby cars on the quarter-mile.

C.A.R.A. late models also provide the action at Lake Hill Speedway in Valley Park, Mo., on Sunday nights. A.M.A. motorcycle racing will be featured here on Tuesday nights from June to September.

A face-lifting program is underway at Tri-City with all new perma-glass seating to be installed by the April opening date.

A C.A.R.A. open meeting will be held at 8 p.m. Friday, in the Lewis & Clark Room of Stouffiers River Front Inn, St. Louis, to discuss specifications and running rules. Race movies will be shown. All race fans and drivers are welcome.

1971 Kickers Top Champs

Many of the present and former Granite City High School soccer standouts took part in an unofficial match Friday at Wilson Park which was won by Mendoza Sporting Goods, a team of 1971 varsity players.

The 1971 players defeated St. Joseph's, a team composed primarily of state champions from this year's GCHS squad. St. Joseph's was coached by the 1970 Warrior standout Bobby Galvin.

The score was 4-0 in favor of the Mendoza group. Jim Forrester was the first to score, followed by a point for Perry Dillard. Jerry Duncan earned the third goal and Bill Bronnbauer completed the scoring.

The 1973 Volkswagen is still $1999.*

A bargain is a bargain.

While you can see the new 1973 Beetle is still at a nice low price, you really can't begin to see the value until you know what you're getting for your money.

A warranty, for instance, that's twice what you get with any other small car: 24 months or 24,000 miles.

But then, we wouldn't be offering it if it weren't for our incredibly finicky factory inspection: over 1100 inspectors poring over more than 5,000 parts. (It sounds compulsive, but it's the best way to reach perfection.)

Consider also our legendary resale value. When you compare it with other cars after three years, it makes our $1999* sound absolutely amazing!

Everything adding up to one important point: there's a big difference between being cheap, and being a bargain.

Few things in life work as well as a Volkswagen.

Local Swimmers Place In 14 Events at Meet

Granite City swimmers placed in 14 events at the annual Carondelet YMCA Thanksgiving invitational meet during the weekend at Forest Park Community College in St. Louis.

The contributions from the local swimmers assisted the Bi-County YMCA in placing second in the meet, losing by four points to the host team. Thirty-five teams from six states with more than 200 competitors were entered in the speed event. Final scores for the teams were being compiled today.

Judy Reisinger, a younger sister of nationally ranked swimming champion Karen Reisinger, made the best show of local swimmers, assisting in firsts by the 200-yard medley relay and the 200-yard free style relay teams for 13 and 14 year olds.

Mark Buenger, competing in the same age bracket, placed third in the 200-yard breast stroke and third in the 200-yard free stroke, and helped second place relay and sixth in the 200-yard free relay.

Janet Becherer placed in three events for the Bi-County team assisting in second and fifth place finishes for the 11 and 12 year old 200-yard free and medley relay teams and finishing sixth in the 100-yard butterfly individual event.

Other local placers were Ken Jolly, second place medley relay team for 11 and 12 year olds.

Details of Tax Freeze Proposal

By MAURICE W. SCOTT
Executive Vice-President, Tappan's Federation of Illinois

The Illinois General Assembly is continuing its 1972 session in the deliberations which began yesterday.

The general order of business will be to act on vetoes, legislation of high priority, and to consider Governor Ogilvie's property tax freeze bills.

The tax freeze bills are two in number and will be considered by the General Assembly in special session.

To keep things straight and orderly, the legislature will probably conduct its business for the continuation of its 1972 general session on certain days, and on alternate days will consider the special session tax freeze legislation.

The chief property tax freeze bill provides that no county clerk shall extend, for the period Dec. 31, 1972 to Jan. 2, 1973, the ad valorem property taxes levied by a taxing district for any purpose or fund, an amount greater than the amount extended by the county clerk for such purpose or fund of the taxing district in 1973.

In other words, the property tax bill which the taxpayer receives in 1973 would be frozen at that level until Jan. 2, 1973, with certain exceptions such as referendum rates voted after Dec. 31, 1972, general obligation bond rates, qualifying rates for state grants, annexations to a district after Dec. 31, 1972, consolidation and increases in school enrollments during the freeze period on a percentage basis.

The second bill would allow the governing body of a county, municipality or township to repay to ad valorem property taxpayers an amount up to 25% of the ad valorem property taxes paid by each taxpayer in each year of the freeze.

This is the rub: Unless something can be enacted to make this mandatory, the federal revenue sharing funds, which make the tax freeze bills possible, will be used as additional revenue to spend and little or nothing will be plowed back to really reduce property taxes.

Everything But the Score Controlled by GC Cagers

The Granite City High School warrior basketball team outshot, outrebounded and outdefended the Springfield Griffin Cyclones in Springfield Saturday night but still lost the season opener 51-48.

Coach Don Deterding commented that his team had everything needed for victory except one thing, the ability to score. "You have to get the ball through the hoop. That is the name of the game," he said.

The Warriors took 48 shots during the game and 25 free throws while the Cyclones were able to break through the zone defense for only 37 shots and 23 free throws.

The Warriors also controlled the boards with 30 rebounds to 25 for Griffin. Granite City had more than its share of interceptions, taking the ball from the opponents 42 times.

The story was in the misses rather than the hits as only 19 Warrior field goals were good while 29 missed and 10 of the 25 free throws went through the hoop.

Granite City held the edge in the first quarter 14-10 but Griffin managed to reverse the lead in the second period and at half time the Cyclones lead by two, 27-25.

Lead By Four
The Warriors sprung back in the third period to resume the lead, 39-35, but in the final period were unable to hit on the important shots.

In that quarter, the Warriors could score only nine points while allowing the Cyclones 16. With one minute remaining in the game, the Warriors trailed by only two and missed a one-and-one free-throw situation which would have tied the score.

With 17 seconds remaining, Griffin scored to earn a four-point advantage. A free throw lead, 39-35, but in the final period were unable to hit on the important shots.

Bret Champion lead the Warrior scoring with 11 points and Tom Patterson and Mike Martine each added 10 to the scoreboard. Steve Melzer was credited with seven points, Mark Gauen had six and Tom Vrank led down four points.

The Madison Trojans and the Warriors will clash at the Granite City High School Friday night. The junior varsity game will start at 6:30 p.m.

Debra Jean Robinson and Bruce E. David Are Wed

Lighted tapers in hurricane lamps, entwined with amaranth and satin bows, marked the white-carpeted aisle at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church for the wedding on Saturday of Miss Debra Jean Robinson and Bruce E. David.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Joyce Keith, 2701 Washington Ave., and Russell Robinson, 2338 Ivy Lane. The groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert David, reside at 1188 Nameoki Road.

For her wedding, the former Miss Robinson, chose a white velvet full-length gown designed in an Empire style with a slightly gathered skirt and long bishop sleeves.

White Venise lace accented the mandarin collar, defined the high rise waistline and edged the wide cuffs. Velvet ribbon inserted in bands of Venise lace formed a decorative three-paneled design on the fitted bodice and bordered the hem.

She wore a white velvet high-crown headpiece embellished with Venise lace and ribbon to hold in place a long mantilla veil edged in a tiny row of matching lace. Her bridal bouquet was a cascade of white Sweetheart roses and white carnations festooned with satin streamers.

Miss Helen Walck, maid of honor, and bridesmaids Mrs. Dona Werner, Miss Kathy David, sister of the groom, and Miss Yong Ok Chong, attended the bride.

Keri Sue Keith, the bride's sister, was the flower girl. Bobby Copeland, cousin of the groom, was ringbearer.

Burgandy velvet floor-length gowns with the styling of the bride's gown except for the train fashioned the bridesmaids' gowns. White lace ruffles around the stand-up collars and panels around the bib effect, back and front, added interest.

AUTUMN BRIDE. Mrs. Bruce E. David, the former Miss Debra Jean Robinson, a daughter of Mrs. Joyce Keith and Russell Robinson of Granite City. She was married Saturday afternoon at St. Elizabeths Church.

Janet Bertacchi Becomes Mrs. Michael Friederich

Sacred Heart Roman Catholic Church was the scene of the wedding on Saturday of Miss Janet Kay Bertacchi, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bertacchi, 2500 Jerden Ave., and Michael Leo Friederich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Friederich, 2138 Clark Ave.

Large white floral arrangements of mums and greenery decorated the main altar and white bows adorned the pews.

The Rev. Daniel Flynn officiated at the double ring nuptial Mass at 12 o'clock. Aides were Kevin, Brian and Michael Konzen, cousins of the groom.

Mrs. Margaret Crawshaw presided at the organ and provided a program of wedding selections.

Mr. Bertacchi escorted his daughter down the white carpeted aisle and gave her in marriage. She selected an ivory gown of sate peau embellished with peau de' ange lace motifs and Venise lace with ribbon inserts.

The fitted Empire bodice featured a high neckline and a collar of matching lace. Long, full sleeves were enhanced with peau de' ange lace motifs and the wide cuffs were trimmed with decorated lace and ribbon.

The motifs were repeated on the A-line skirt and formed a wide border at the hemline.

A detachable chapel length train was lavishly accented with the matching lace appliques and ribbon. She wore a Camelot bonnet of beaded lace to secure a full length bridal veil of silk illusion. Her bouquet was a cascade of white roses and baby breath, centered with a white orchid corsage.

Miss Carolyn Bertacchi, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Mrs. Mary Leatherman, a cousin of the bride, and Miss Susan Friederich, a sister of the groom, were bridesmaids.

Misses Jane and Diane Friederich, sisters of the groom, were the junior maids.

Jennifer Bertacchi and Ricky Bertacchi, niece and nephew of the bride, served as flower girl and ringbearer.

The bridesmaids wore identical dresses of moss green chiffon over taffeta, with Empire style bodices. The long full sleeves and cuffs were trimmed in ivory Venise lace with moss green ribbon inserts. The high neck collar and the bodice of the dresses were similarly trimmed with Venise lace and ribbon. The skirts were slightly gathered with a train from the bodice extending to the hemline.

They carried cascade bouquets of yellow, gold, and bronze button mums, accented with moss green ribbons. The flower girl was dressed identically to the bridesmaids and carried a basket of mums.

Mark Friederich, a brother of the groom, served as best man. Elvin Hoekstra, Thomas Melvill, Paul Bonk and Mark Aldridge, both cousins of the bride, were the groomsmen.

Richard Bertacchi, a brother of the bride, and Richard Lucide were ushers.

Mrs. Bertacchi chose for her daughter's wedding a coat and dress - ensemble of pale pink satin - backed linen accented with matching lace, etched with pearls. She wore matching pink accessories and a corsage of white roses.

Mrs. Friederich wore a dress costume of rose and pink polyester and wool with matching accessories and a pink rose corsage.

A reception was held Saturday evening at the Polish Hall in Madison. Mrs. Richard Bertacchi Jr., a sister-in-law of the bride, presided at the guest book. Miss Audrey Hossbach, a former classmate of the bride, and Mrs. Ray Friederich, sister-in-law of the groom, attended the cake table.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Friederich were hosts at a rehearsal dinner for the wedding party Friday evening at Charlie's Restaurant.

The newly married couple will reside in Granite City. The former Miss Bertacchi attended Illinois State University at Normal for three years and presently is attending Southern Illinois University, Edwardsville, where she is majoring in English.

Her husband is a graduate of Southern Illinois University with a degree in Mathematics and Computer Science. He presently is employed as a computer programmer at McDonnell Douglas Corporation in St. Louis.

"DOUBLE KNITS DRY CLEAN BETTER"

It's never "Open Season" for shooting Electric Lines

We've had several recent power failures due to gunshot damage to insulators and conductors on our electric lines. In each of these power failures, service was interrupted to our customers.

We are very concerned about the inconvenience our customers suffer from these power interruptions. The problem could be even worse if the damaged line served a hospital or home-bound patient in an iron lung.

Hunting game is a sport many people enjoy during autumn. That's why Illinois assigns definite dates for hunting various wild animals. But it's never "open season" for electric lines!

Shooting an electric line might seem like fun. But it could mean a tragedy for someone else. At the very least, it causes great inconvenience to people served by that line.

SIUE Program to Aid Teacher Preparation

Two Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville programs designed to improve teacher preparation will be explained Tuesday at a meeting of the Association of Teacher Educators, Gateway East chapter.

The discussion, beginning at 7:30 p.m. in the Mississippi Room of the SIUE University Center, will focus first on the Microteaching Laboratory of the Education Division.

Microteaching is a practice teaching model in which a student teaches a lesson, is critiqued, then reteaches the lesson. The student is videotaped, providing a most immediate feedback. The term "microteaching" is used because the duration of the lesson and the number of learners are scaled down from traditional practice teaching situations.

Leading the discussion on microteaching will be SIUE faculty members William Ahlbrand and Catherine Wolf.

The second program on the agenda is the Elementary Physical Education Learning Center, a joint venture of SIUE and Alton School District II. SIUE faculty members Larry Moehn and George Luedke will lead the discussion.

Moehn and Luedke are assigned full-time to Irving School in Alton, supplementing the school district's staff. They teach elementary school children while SIUE students preparing to be physical education instructors observe or participate in the class.

Jerry Gibson, SIUE faculty member and program chairman of the Association of Teacher Educators, said the meeting is open to the public. President of the group's Gateway chapter is Mrs. Sally Sowell of the Granite City school district.

Mrs. Walter H. Francis

MRS. GARY LEE SANDERS, the former Miss Nelda Ruth Walton, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Denny Walton, 732 Twenty-sixth Place, Her wedding took place Saturday evening at the First Assembly of God Church.

Miss Nelda Ruth Walton Marries Gary L. Sanders

Wedding vows of Miss Nelda Ruth Walton and Gary Lee Sanders were solemnized at the First Assembly of God Church at 7 o'clock on Saturday evening.

The Rev. G. A. Groff officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Miss Walton is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Denny Walton, 732 Twenty-sixth Place. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sanders, who reside at 3624 E. 28th St.

The sanctuary was illuminated with lighted tapers in branched candelabras and decorated with two bouquets of pink gladioli and white mums. Aisle candles were lighted by Dale Sanders, the groom's brother and Mark Latham, a cousin of the bride.

Mrs. Elaine Mullins, organist, accompanied Miss Debbie Milton as she sang "The Wedding Song" and a "Wedding Prayer."

Mr. Walton escorted his daughter down the white carpeted aisle and gave her in marriage.

She chose a gown of ivory color, silk organza fashioned with an Empire bodice, high neckline outlined with Alencon lace motifs, and enhanced the long, full shepherds sleeves. Matching lace motifs encircled the waistline of the long A-line skirt, accented with lace appliques etched with tiny pearls.

The bride's full sweep train was bordered with scalloped lace and cascaded from the back waistline and matching scalloped lace traced the hem of her gown.

A lace headpiece held in place a veil of ivory bridal illusion with pearl clusters and she carried a cascade of pink daisies, baby breath, white gladioli and ivy.

Miss Donna Sanders, sister of the groom, was ring bearer, honor, serving with Miss Joann Andrews and Miss Judy Raynor, bridesmaids.

Laura Ruth Andrews, a niece of the bride, was flower girl and Ricky Gauen, a nephew of the groom, was ring bearer.

Gowns of ruby velvet, featuring Empire waists and long puffed sleeves caught into wide cuffs were worn by the attendants. Ivory lace formed a scoop neckline effect on the front and back of their gowns and matching lace accented the high waist and cuffs.

Camelot headpieces of the ruby velvet were worn on their hair.

The little flower girl's gown was made in similar fashion to that of the adult attendants only in pink velvet with short puff sleeves.

Nosegays of pink Elegance roses, bronze daisy poms and burgundy straw flowers were carried.

Chester Walton, the bride's brother, attended the groom. Groomsmen were Ray Gardner and Dennis Foret. David Slay seated the guests.

A reception followed the ceremony in the fellowship hall of the church, where cake and punch were served. Miss Tina Taylor presided over the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanders are both graduates of Granite City High School. They will make their home in Granite City.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents in their home.

Mrs. Walton, the bride's mother, chose a floor-length gown of pink linen with an Empire waist and mandarin collar. Matching heavy lace trimmed the high-rise waist. Her accessories were in ruby red and she wore a corsage of pink Sweetheart roses.

The groom's mother was attired in a sky blue crepe knit dress featuring a V neckline chiffon sleeves. She wore matching accessories and her corsage was made up of pink roses.

The meeting took place one night later than originally scheduled. The council usually meets on alternate Tuesdays.

Two bids were received for a new dump truck for the city street department.

A $5,688 offer from Matthews Chevrolet Co. and a $5,835 bid from Brewer Motor Co. were referred to the purchasing committee and city officials for consideration and a recommendation.

The councilmen were told that a suit has been filed in Circuit Court against the city on behalf of the survivors of Mrs. Erka Ichenorth. Mrs. Ichenorth was fatally injured in an auto accident on the closed Chain of Rocks Bridge June 10.

Bills totaling $20,771 were approved by the council and ordered paid.

The Schermer Bulletin!

Well, another Thanksgiving holiday has come and gone and we lived through it. If you had asked Avery if he thought we would be able to say that on Tuesday we think you would have gotten a different answer. Business was tremendous. This was the reason for the somewhat different format our ad had for this past weekend. The coupons we ran offered some great values and this was to say "thanks" for making Thanksgiving '72 the greatest ever.

After Thanksgiving comes Christmas and we are really getting prepared now. Herman reports that a large selection of Christmas cards has arrived so make up your list and do the post office a favor and mail early.

All the fixings for Christmas dinner are available now: nuts, glazed fruit, fruit cakes, a tremendous selection of candies, everything you need for your Yuletide pleasure.

We also have one new non-food item of some interest to you ladies. The exquisite party hose seen in today's ad are a real value. These hose are made by Eastern Hosiery mill, the same people who make Leggs and Ugly Ducklings. In fact, except for one inspection these hose are the same as those selling for $1.49 to $2.98. Of course, these hose are backed by the Schermer guarantee. (If you don't like them, bring them back for a full CASH refund), so you can't lose. Try them, you'll like them!!

At the November meeting of the Marshall School PTA was held Wednesday, with Dr. Betty Crowther, professor of sociology at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, as guest speaker and in the absence of the president, Mrs. Rose Arnold, vice-president, gave the welcome and presided at the business session.

'Kiss Me, Kate' at Nameoki Recreation Center Saturday

Shakespeare? At the Nameoki Recreation Center in Granite City? Well, not exactly. But the Masquers' 1972-73 season opener is Cole Porter's "Kiss Me, Kate," a no-nonsense, reasonable facsimile of the Stratford bard's "The Taming of the Shrew."

This favorite of Porter's many Broadway musicals will be presented at the Granite City Park District's at Franklin Avenue near Pontoon Road on Saturday, Dec. 2; curtain time will be 8:15 p.m.

"Kiss Me, Kate" is under the direction of Al Erickson. A former resident of Madison, he holds a master of fine arts degree in theatre from SIU-Carbondale and brings a wide variety of theatrical experience to the task of directing "Kate."

He is no stranger to Granite City theatre-goers, having appeared in several previous Masquers productions, including "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum," "Mame" and

"Sabaret." He also appeared in the East Bank Players' production of "The Fantasticks" last season.

Musical-direction of the show has been the responsibility of Paul Mabrey. He appeared in the Masquers production of "Cabaret" last season, as well as doing the musical direction for the show. He is currently studying music at SIU at Edwardsville, having served as vocal music and choral instructor at Granite City High School.

Mabrey is also choir director of Niedringhaus United Methodist Church. In addition to his concentration on the vocal music of Porter's difficult score, he has put together, rehearsed and conducts one of the most versatile pit orchestras Masquers audiences have heard.

Mrs. Suzanne Brockus Riddle has been choreographer for "Kate." Mrs. Riddle, formerly of Granite City and now a resident of the Edwardsville, is presently a student of theatre and dance at SIUE.

So, as she is better known to many, has appeared in several Masquers productions in the past, most recently, "Cabaret." She appeared with the SIU University Theatre Summer Repertory Company as a featured dancer and performer last summer.

Seen in Collinsville on Nov. 9, 10, and 18, "Kate" was termed by as an "excellent production... a fast-paced sprightly rendition of the play-within-a-play... the cast does a skilful job of making Shakespeare come alive."

"Kiss Me, Kate" will open the Masquers' season for 1972-73. Other shows to be presented in the current season include "Cinderella" for "children of all ages" in March and another musical, the award-winning "Man of La Mancha," in June.

To order tickets for "Kiss Me, Kate" or to obtain group rate information or season tickets, residents may contact Mrs. Beverly Scroggins at 877-2228.

PEOPLE AND MEDICINES SOME LIKE IT HOT?

Everybody has a different tolerance to heat. Some people no matter what the temperature seem to be cool and untroubled. Others start to wilt at the first signs of warm weather. Drugs too react to temperature changes in different ways. With some medicines special storage precautions must be taken to insure that a sudden change in temperature does not occur and effect the potency of the drug.

Division of Levee District Recommended to Make It More Responsive to the Public and More Efficient

As the Illinois General Assembly resumes its 1972 deliberations this week—special and recessed sessions began last night—major public attention will focus on a proposed state freeze of local-level property taxes.

Another issue of considerable importance to the Madison-St. Clair Counties area is the bill which would divide the East Side Levee and Sanitary District along the county line, creating a new district in the Quad-City area and another serving the East St. Louis-Canteen Township area.

What the "levee district split" offers is what has been lacking in the 65-year history—government service responsive to the needs and wishes of the electorate.

Each new district would be situated close enough to each of the respective communities that there could be frequent dialogue between voters, taxpayers and citizens, on the one hand,

Illinois Airport Needed to Meet Region's Aviation Needs

Comment by St. Louis Post-Dispatch

If the St. Louis area is to develop an airport compatible with a great city in the future, a decision cannot be put off again and again. Yet opponents of an Illinois site have consistently tried delaying tactics, without much success.

Last week the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council voted by 11 to 7 to reject the request of Joseph J. Badaracco, president of the Board of Aldermen, to delay a decision on an Illinois airport until a master plan could be developed for a $370,000,000 expansion of Lambert Field.

Since the plan will probably take two years to complete, that request meant a delay amounting to two years.

Now the Department of Transportation in Washington has rejected a request for a one-year delay from Henry

Revisions in Social Security Going into Effect in 1973

(Washington Report)

The cost of Social Security is going up and up, both for employers and employees.

The new Social Security law signed by President Nixon raises Social Security payroll taxes from the present 5.2% levied on the first $9,000 a year of earnings ($468 a year each) to 5.85% each on the first $10,800 earned in 1973 ($631.80 each) and 5.85% each on the first $12,000 from 1974 through 1977 ($702 each annually). The increases become effective Jan. 1, 1973.

On the benefit side, the legislation raises widows' and widowers' benefits to 100% of the deceased spouses' benefits. It allows Social Security retirees to earn up to $2,100 a year instead of $1,680 a year with no reduction of benefits.

Victory by Scott Was More Impressive But Senator Percy Won Big, Kept Presidential Prospects Alive

By LESTER BELL
Copley News Service

Washington — The Far Right in its eagerness to throw cold water on Sen. Charles H. Percy's Presidential ambitions may be guilty of unseemly haste in reading too much in a 120,000-vote margin in the Illinois general election.

Percy will not be surprised that "Human Events," the conservative political weekly, interprets Atty. Gen. William Scott's state lead as relegating Percy to "only second best" in Illinois balloting.

Percy has been under the conservative umbrella since 1964, when he supported Barry Goldwater — "but not too much."

Chuck exerts an inordinate fascination over "Human Events."

Nearly every issue carries a Percy item. A recent one has him "already planning a race for the 1976 GOP Presidential nomination."

This may or may not be true — he hasn't said. But every pundit, be he liberal, centrist or conservative, takes it as an article of faith that he is.

The premise is that there's only one direction for Percy, and that's up. He'll be only 57 in late 1976 with 10 years' Senate service behind him.

Now "Human Events" says that while liberal Republicans herald Percy's 1976 vote potential, "The handsome son is

Treaty Ignores Some Big Problems — And Berlin Wall Remains Intact

Copley News Service

The new treaty negotiated between Bonn and East Berlin is being hailed as a document ending the Cold War between the two Germanies.

It would be wise to reserve judgment on whether this mutual recognition of sovereignty deserves as much applause as Chancellor Willy Brandt is giving himself for having brought it about.

Mr. Brandt won re-election with ease in the balloting held Sunday, Nov. 19.

The promise of more traffic between East and West Germany and more reunions for divided German families made an excellent foil for the criticism the Brandt government faced for its failures on bread-and-butter domestic issues.

It is not surprising that the East German Communists and their Moscow tutors made some concessions to West Germany to give Mr. Brandt and his Social Democrats another "break-through" toward peace and harmony at this crucial moment.

If the election had turned out the wrong way, it could have meant an end to Mr. Brandt's "Ostpolitik."

"This in turn would be a setback for the European Security Conference which the Soviet Union is counting on to carry forward its policy of detente in Europe."

With the preparatory talks for the conference scheduled late in November, the necessity of getting the East even invaded the celebration of the 50th anniversary of the 1917 Russian revolution in Moscow's Red Square.

The display of weapons was perfunctory, and the anti-Western rhetoric secondary on that occasion was muted.

Cold Wars are undeclared wars, however, and the strain and suspicion which created them arise from how nations behave rather than from statements of policy.

It will be hard for Mr. Brandt to convince many political realists that the language of his new treaty is all that it takes to make comfortable neighbors of two German states built on such divergent principles.

The Berlin wall remains. So does the long barbed-wire border of East Germany, only recently equipped with a more deadly type of mine to discourage refugees who might hope to elude the machine guns.

So does the intractable position of the East German regime on such basic questions as the future of Berlin and which of the two Germanies is the real one in terms of continuity of the old German Reich.

Ratification of the treaty, which can be expected to occur smoothly now that Mr. Brandt's party has won the election, would clear the way for both Germany to seek admission to the United Nations.

The U.N. appears willing to overlook as much as has been overlooked in the treaty itself.

They are as far from agreement as ever on terms for a peace treaty that would bring World War II officially to an end.

If it seems premature to declare that the Cold War is over on the German front, it might be because we have not yet dealt with the end of the "hot war" of 1939-45.

Moon Flight to Vacate Sky Six Days Before the Sleigh Flight

Exploration of the moon by man is about to end.

But the space program is given high marks in a current national magazine article by a noted science fiction writer Robert Heinlein. He says it is the most important series of scientific projects currently in progress.

Discussing the practical value of the space program, Heinlein asks: "What has it been worth to us to have television satellites in the sky? What's it been worth to watch a great historical event take place in Europe—live, when it actually happens?"

And how many lives have the weather satellites saved by telling us things about the weather?

"When meteorological satellites can enable us to forecast weather many days ahead—as they soon will—the savings to this country alone will be billions of dollars annually."

"The National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Technology Utilization Division lists more than 3,000 spinoffs from the space program that are now available to the public," continues Heinlein.

"They include paint for house siding that can stand up to 1,300 degrees temperature, freeze-dried edibles such as coffee, a walking chair for crippled children, sensors to measure blood pressure, filament wound plastics as strong as steel and nine times lighter, new fuel cells, new methods of electronic miniaturizing — you name it."

"And the know-how to make every single one of these is available to you and to me and to everybody — unclassified, unpatented; just take them and use them."

Even a hundred years from now, nobody will be able to figure out just how much those technical briefs have been worth.

"The day will come," concludes Heinlein, "when we'll wonder how we ever got along without the space program."

His remarks call attention to the scheduled launching of Apollo 17 during the evening hours of Wednesday, Dec. 6 — a first and last for the NASA program.

It will be the first nighttime launching of the Mercury, Gemini and Apollo manned space missions. Apollo 17 also will be the last flight of the current Apollo lunar exploration series.

One of the primary support organizations for the Apollo missions has been the Defense Mapping Agency Aerospace Center (DMAAC), St. Louis.

The Center has provided the maps and graphics for NASA manned space missions since John Glenn's first orbit of the Earth in 1962.

Reform of Federal Programs Planned in Next 4 Years

Copley News Service

After an election in which the voter receives a landslide popular vote, such as we have just witnessed, the President usually presents an expansive domestic program to Congress.

Examples that come readily to mind include the major electoral victory of Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1932 that created the New Deal and spawned the massive thrust of social legislation that is highly visible today.

The New Deal received additional "top spin" after the landslide election of 1936 that returned President Lyndon B. Johnson to office in his own right.

President Johnson, with the assistance of the 89th Congress, promptly folded the nation with so-called Great Society legislation.

It is evident that President Nixon, who received a landslide vote of confidence on Nov. 7, plans a different approach.

In an interview with Garrett D. Homer, correspondent for the Washington, D. C. Star-News, the President said he was not planning to support a tax increase.

Nor will he advocate massive new social programs for the United States.

"This country has enough in its plate in the way of huge new spending programs, throwing dollars at problems."

"What we need is, basically, reform of existing institutions. Consequently, the next Administration will be one of reform, not just adding more dollars," he said.

The President has an accumulating body of evidence to support his decision.

The recent report of the Brookings Institution on the setting of national priorities thoughtfully documented that the money thrown at social problems has in many instances exceeded the ability of the bureaucracy to cope with it and, in many cases, aggravated rather than solved problems.

Even the most ardent advocates of human rights concede that there is enough legislation extant to cover all of the anticipated problems.

In the four years that include the current federal budget, the nation will have accumulated a deficit of nearly $100 billion.

Fully 45% of the budget is spent for human problems, and yet the problems appear to worsen.

Assuredly the landslide vote for President Nixon reflected public disenchantment with the pell mell, almost directionless course we have been following, and with the abuses that huge sums of money always seem to attract.

In the small measure, the reason that many Americans have lost faith in the ability of government to function is that the excesses and indulgences of the past decade have, in reality, made it impossible for the bureaucracy to be effective.

Progress in Washington is not necessarily a legislative landslide after a presidential landslide.

A period of introspection, digestion and belt tightening may very well be, as President Nixon suggests, the pause that refreshes.

SANTA ARRIVES. Santa Claus, along with two elves, arrived here at 9 a.m. Friday and, complete with police escort, squealing sirens and flashing lights, proceeded from the McKinley Bridge in Venice through Madison and Granite City. The parade ended at his cabin in Civic Park. His official chauffeur was David Brewer in the driver's seat of a 1922 Chalmers seven-passenger touring car.

Annual Christmas Doll Display Begins Today

Ernest A. Karandjeff, president, today reported that dozens of Christmas dolls, wearing original costumes designed and sewn by women of the Quad-Cities, make up a lobby-full-of-dolls display at the Granite City Trust and Savings Bank. The display began this week. Because of the appeal of the display to children and adults, and the creative flair shown by those who dressed the dolls, the bank has issued an invitation "to everyone to stop in, and to bring the family along to see the dolls on display." The dolls have been entered by bank customers in Granite City Trust's annual Christmas Dress-A-Doll contest. The bank furnishes all of the dolls and the prizes. Individual contestants donate their time and skill to design and sew costumes for the dolls. Gifts to Needy Destined as Christmas gifts for needy youngsters—either at home, or in schools, hospitals or other institutions—the dolls will remain on display at the Trust and Savings Bank, 1909 Edison Ave., until Dec. 8. They will be turned over to a variety of local agencies to be distributed at Christmas to less fortunate youngsters. Winning designs in the dress-a-doll contest will qualify for a grand prize and separate first-place prizes to winners in each of six different categories. Because of the separate design categories, the dolls are individually dressed in an assortment of colorful outfits, including storybook characters, fancy dress clothing, Old World costumes, "sensible" dress and other divisions. Of special interest to children is a separate dress-a-doll contest category for children under 15 years of age only.

Graham of Godfrey, on the railroad crossing at 14th and State streets in Madison at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday. Longbottom said he was southbound when the eastbound train appeared suddenly at the crossing. He applied the brakes and stopped just as the front of his car engine touched the front of the train engine. There were no flares or warning devices signaling the train's approach, he contended.

Volunteers' Teamwork Provides Basis for Unity, Progress in This Community -- Baker

Test of remarks by Chester L. Baker, new president of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce, at the annual Chamber membership meeting last week: Every city or area brings together within limited space a diverse and varied community of people so they may achieve a better life through the teamwork of a common unity.

The Tri-Cities area has been built by its people working together over the years.

The Chamber of Commerce this demonstration of democracy in action. It has done this through the application of voluntary teamwork.

The Chamber of Commerce provides a common unity for the Tri-Cities area — a marshalling ground for progress and betterment. Down through the years, the Chamber of Commerce has been at the forefront of practically every major development in the Tri-Cities area.

Our challenge today, however, is not to look good in comparison to our predecessors, or to our contemporaries in community development work, but rather to strive — without ceasing — to improve our organization and to maximize its effectiveness.

Today, the prudent man, company or community is one that anticipates its role under changing conditions and moves in time to fill that role. Survival in the years ahead will not go to the immutable, but to the adaptable.

This realization in itself may be the most important change of all, for in the past survival was considered the reward for resisting changes from established precepts.

But, preparing for a new future, about which we can be certain only that it will be different, is a new and great challenge to man's courage and creativity.

It is far more than adaptability, for being able to go only whichever way the latest wind blows is to be nothing more than opportunistic.

It may well be that one of the most important developments of the past fifty years is one we never hear mentioned with the dramatic advances of aviation, space flight, wonder drugs, automation and the rest. This is the conscious application of creative intelligence and innovation to the knowns and the unknowns that make up the future.

The promise as well as the problems of the Tri-Cities area must be understood in terms of the stark realities of the time in which we are living.

We need to be conditioned but not calloused to change if we are to build new foundations for a greater Tri-Cities area and for its population in the coming generations.

Without proper adjustment to this challenge of change, we are inclined to spend too much time solving problems that no longer exist. Many of the objectives and methods that have guided our community development efforts in the past are no longer suited to the conditions of today and will be even more inadequate for tomorrow.

Likewise, some of the qualities of community life that were attractive to business and industry — and that met the recognized needs and wants of the citizenry — in the past, are no longer satisfactory to urban citizens and are no longer inviting to new investments.

Every citizen of the Tri-Cities area regardless of his economic station or walk of life, must realize very keenly that times have changed — conditions have changed — technology has changed.

Therefore, it is imperative that our attitudes must likewise change accordingly if we are to keep pace.

The character and extent of our organization and the influx of a rapidly changing world combine to give the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce a magnificent challenge. The character and extent of our organization and the influx of a rapidly changing world combine to give the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce a magnificent challenge.

Change is the constant challenge of our Chamber.

Progress comes through change. And in providing the teamwork for voluntary effort in our community, our Chamber of Commerce is the community's partner in progress.

It is the responsibility of our Chamber of Commerce to be a shaper of change rather than a caretaker of emergencies resulting from change.

If it is to be successful in its mission, our Chamber of Commerce must be able to cope with change and turn it to the benefit of our communities.

In accepting the presidency of our Chamber of Commerce, I do so with pride and humility and with the full realization that there is a big job to be done.

However, I also realize that I cannot do the job alone; our professional Chamber executive cannot do the job alone; the board of directors cannot do the job alone. It will be up to each and every member of our Chamber to do his part both personally and financially, if we are to be successful in our mission.

The way in which we deal with the problems that face us will determine not only how long they will be with us, but also what the future of our community is to be. Today decides tomorrow.

Girl, 14, Abducted, Assaulted Wednesday

A Granite City girl, 14, was raped by one of four men who forced her into their auto while she was on a school lunch period Wednesday at the Bellemore Village Shopping center. It was reported at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday.

She was struck on the chin while being placed in the auto, and the assault occurred while the auto was being driven. She was released at the shopping center, and as she was heading back to school, an attempt was made to run her down with the same auto, she related.

The girl said $2 was taken from her. She described her assailants as being shabby and past high school age.

Motorist Sues Truck Firm Over Accident

A suit seeking $30,000 in each of two counts has been filed for Cletus Karban against Robert Sauerwein, doing business as Sauerwein Trucking Service, and Roy Gibson, truck driver, in Madison County Circuit Court.

The complaint alleges that Karban suffered severe injuries when his auto was struck by a Sauerwein truck last Oct. 26 on Route 111 and State Aid 35. Negligence was charged.

SIUE Student Fee To Be Used For Scholarships

Students registering for the winter quarter at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville will be assessed a fee of $1.50 which can be refunded upon request during the first 10 days of the quarter.

The SIU Board of Trustees has authorized collection of a "voluntary" fee of $1.50 to be paid by all students.

Funds collected and not refunded will be retained in a separate account and will be used only to make scholarship grants to SIUE students and to obtain matching funds from the Illinois State Scholarship Commission.

In its last session the Illinois General Assembly appropriated $150,000 to the scholarship commission for matching funds during this fiscal year.

The SIUE Student Senate proposed collection of the campus fee as a means of raising matching funds so SIUE students could benefit from the expanded scholarship program.

According to Elwood Buchanan, administrative assistant in the Student Work and Financial Assistance office at SIUE, the fee will make more money available for eligible students.

Buchanan defined eligible students, in-state students under the Illinois State Scholarship Commission grant program.

"Remaining funds can be absorbed by out-of-state or graduate students," Buchanan said. "We feel this student-student matching fund grant program will bring a good return on $1.50 for those students eligible to receive the grant money."
